Masonic Temple

The new Masonic Temple over the Lawson building is rapidly nearing completion and the chapter lodge will hold the first meeting in the hall on tomorrow afternoon,

This temple is indeed a thing of beauty and would be a credit to a city many times the size of Barbourville.

When completed, the temple alone will have cost the masons $4,500, which will be equally divided be tween the blue lodge and the chap-

Not many miles from our town an gnorant fellow had fallen in love with one of the queens of creation. Not being able to write her as good a letter as he desired, in his extremity he sought the assistance of an acquaintance, and requested that among the other sweet sentences some poetry should be couched. Poetry is the language of love and portrays the heart better than prose, and of course it would be the proper medium in which to address her. The acquaintance-we can hardly call him a friend-wrote the follow-
